About the Ninth Judicial Circuit Court

Introduction:

The Ninth Judicial Circuit Court is located in the heart of Central Florida and is one of 20 judicial circuits in the State of Florida. Serving Orange and Osceola counties, the Ninth Circuit covers over 2,000 square miles and serves more than 1.3 million residents making it one of the largest circuits in Florida. Additionally, because of Central Florida's great sunshine, family attractions, and a strong economy, Central Florida plays host to nearly 50 million business and vacationing visitors each year, making this the most visited region of the world.

Judges:

There are currently 65 judges serving in the Ninth Circuit. On average, the circuit receives over 590,000 new cases each year. As a court of general jurisdiction, both county and circuit level cases are heard in the circuit.

Programs:

The judges of the Ninth Judicial Circuit have developed numerous court programs to help facilitate the judicial process. The available programs that extend beyond the courtrooms of the Ninth Circuit are: A Place for Children, Children's Visitation Center, Court Interpreters, Court Reporters, Dispute Resolution Service, Family Court Case Management, Family Ties, Foreclosure, Guardianship Monitor, Inside the Courts, K-9th Circuit Program, Local Professionalism Committee, Neighborhood and Restorative Justice, Ninth in a Nushell, Parenting Coordination, Process Servers, Sencioned to Read, Speakers Bureau, Virtual Remote Interpreting and Volunteer Program.

Overall History:

The Florida we know today as a place of palm trees, modern cities and beaches looked much different in its youthful days as a territory and new state. Florida in those days looked more like the Wild West with gun slingers, cattle rustlers and other hardened characters scrapping to make their claim on this rattlesnake infested frontier. Rule of law didn't come easy in those times and justice was often served with fisticuffs or through the muzzle of a gun.

Florida law is older than the state itself, with roots in English Common Law which date back to medieval England. Much of the procedure and terminology found in today's courtrooms actually originated in the days of King Henry II and the circuit riders of old England.

Over the decades, laws were drafted and abolished. Circuits were divided, then merged, then divided again. And our State's first judges rode horseback to bring justice to the people.

What began as 2 territorial circuits of court serving a sparsely populated frontier has grown to 20 circuits that now serve nearly 19 million Florida residents. Still, the storied history of the Ninth Circuit remains as unique as those early pioneers who first settled here.

Divisions: There are 9 divisions: Civil, Collection, Criminal, Domestic, Drug, Juvenile, Probate, Traffic and Veterans.

All of the above information and more, can be found at www.ninthcircuit.org/about
