Work on SR 429 will cause traffic shift Sunday night along SR 46

Work crews are scheduled on Sunday night, October 27, 8 p.m.-6:30 a.m., to shift traffic entering and exiting State Road 429 onto the permanent on and off ramps south of SR 46 as part of building the Wekiva Parkway.

SR 46 westbound traffic will be able to access southbound SR 429 by turning left at the new intersection. SR 46 eastbound traffic will be able to access SR 429 southbound by proceeding straight at the new intersection onto the parkway. The flashing traffic signal at the existing SR 46 and SR 429 intersection will be removed.

Electronic message boards have been posted. Please note construction schedules may change due to weather, or other circumstances.

For more information visit the project website at www.wekivaparkway.com, and follow the project on Facebook and Twitter for updates.

FDOT urges all drivers to stay alert and use caution while driving through or near construction zones. When driving, walking, or bicycling, remember to pay attention and follow the rules. Safety doesn't happen by accident.

The Wekiva Parkway is completing the beltway around Central Florida. The FDOT and the Central Florida Expressway Authority so far have completed 13 miles of the eventual 25-mile toll road.

In city, tree removal permits needed

The city of Apopka issues tree removal permits in an effort to protect the environment and ensure that unhealthy, dead, hazardous, problematic and nuisance trees are removed from private property in the city limits.

Residents who have a tree that they want removed should contact the city's Community Development Department for an application. After submitting the application, the Planning and Zoning Division will review it and determine whether the tree meets the criteria for removal. If approved, a permit will be issued and residents may safely remove the tree.

City staff will calculate a permit fee for tree removal at the same time the permit is issued.

Standards with regard to trees have been set to preserve the city's visual and aesthetic qualities, increase control of erosion and sediment runoff, conserve energy by reducing heating and cooling costs, preserve and enhance air and water quality, reduce the heat island effect and maintain, and improve the quality of life in the city.

Anyone with questions about tree removal may call 407-703-1739.

There is a different number to call with respect to reporting unhealthy trees or trees that need trimming that are in the public right-of-way. To help keep public roads safe, call 407-703-1731 to report a specific problem.

The Breast Cancer Research stamps are congressionally mandated, and these stamps are available for purchase at the Apopka Post Office, located at 581 N. Park Avenue, until October 31.

Since the Breast Cancer Research Stamp first went on sale on July 29, 1998 through November 2011, the United States Postal Service has sold more than 924 million stamps, raising approximately $72 million for breast cancer research at the NIH and DoD.

Apopka Christmas Parade set for December 14

The theme for this year's Apopka Christmas Parade will be "Christmas Memories" and the event is once again sponsored by the Foliage Sertoma Club of Apopka.

As is tradition, the parade is scheduled for the second Saturday of the month, which is December 14. It will step off at 10 a.m. and participants will traverse the usual parade route from Third Street north along Park Avenue to Votaw Road. Traditionally, the parade lasts about two hours.

The annual Christmas Parade is intended to encourage community support and celebration of the holiday season. It is sponsored for the enjoyment of families and children of all ple walk in the downtown Apopka area. These people are on foot as they utilize shopping, dining, and other amenities. I believe we must contact the Best Foot Forward Foundation to conduct an aggressive education effort.

Tragically, we now have an orphaned child and traumatized drivers. None of this is good for any family. Now is the time to take aggressive action to reduce these pedestrian fatalities along Park Avenue.

Now, if you thought I forgot the subject of my opening paragraph, I did not. As the population grows in Orange County, Apopka must prepare and plan for new growth also. Proper planning will determine the quality and effectiveness of our community. If we don't properly plan, more sprawl and less open land will be the result. We know the densities in the downtown core must increase to accommodate additional residents. We know public transportation options must be improved. We must consider additional safety features with these changes in circumstances. We must work to preserve and enhance urban, suburban, and rural areas in Apopka.

I hope you will attend the community town hall meeting that Orange County Mayor Jerry Demings and I will be holding to discuss your concerns and suggestions about these very topics. We want to hear about where you think lighting and roadways are inadequate. How could Lynx/Sunrail help you reach your destinations? How do we protect the quality of life in Apopka while accommodating anticipated growth? We want to hear your ideas. The meeting will be held Thursday, December 5, at 6:30 p.m. at Wekiva High School. I hope to see you there.

on pollution and improvements at Lake Apopka. Ms. Bucheit will be leading the kids through activities around the park that align with science standards.

It's sure to be a fun morning of learning at one of our beautiful parks. After all the learning, the kids will enjoy a picnic lunch at the park before hopping back on the buses.

From the park, the students will travel to City Hall to spend some fun time learning with Mayor Bryan Nelson and former City Commissioner Diane Velazquez.

There, they will be in for a real treat when they sit in the council chambers talking with the mayor about how our city government works. The kids will even get to do a skit with the mayor!

The skit will have a cast of characters that the mayor will randomly choose, and they will act out an entire City Council meeting, including public comments and responses as commissioners.

It is bound to be a great learning experience for the them as they get to participate in a City Council meeting!

Outside City Hall, students will discuss our beautiful 9/11 monument with former Commissioner Velazquez. She will describe the significance of having such an artifact here in our great city to the kids.

After City Hall, the kids will head to Highland Cemetery where students will learn where the beginning of the city was as well as where the first school in Apopka was located.

The first public schoolhouse, built in 1885, was located there.

After learning a little bit about the city's history and the first schoolhouse, the students will load onto the buses and head back to their schools.

Kids will earn an Ahapopka Badge and an Orange County Government certificate for completing the "Explore our Parks" Program. Students will receive their awards at an awards ceremony later in November.

This is sure to be a fun-filled day full of interactive hands-on learning and I'm so excited to be a part of it!

Corbeil: Constitution restraints a problem

inside the People's House, it's no surprise that we have an administration that has claimed the lives and/or reputations of so many associates of this couple: the third rail of political ambition.

The epitome of this spiritualists' convention, known as the Clinton Administration, is the perpetration of "Filegate" and what David Brinkley has labeled as "The Great Plundering of the FBI Files."

It has now been revealed that back when the witch of Pennsylvania Avenue was chatting it up with Eleanor and Mahatma, she was also instructing the White House counsel's office to hire as security director one Craig Livingstone.

With absolutely no qualifications for the security position, Livingstone was known by many as a political operative specializing in dirty tricks, smears, and dirt digging.

In retrospect, one can see where the so-called pressure on Hillary came from in 1993-94 when she tried to transfer the absolute power available in Arkansas to the White House and came against the restraints of our Constitution.

The "pressure" of having to behave in a civilized and legal manner butted heads with her spiritualist character, resulting first in lamp throwing, then "Medigate," Vince Foster's "Arkancide," "Travelgate," "Whitewatergate," and finally hitting the low-water mark with "Filegate."

Beyond the expected Republican conservative reactions to the 480 purloined FBI files and resulting privacy violations, some of the harshest words came from Democrats and liberal media types.

ABC's Sam Donaldson – "Not a mistake. Not a SNAFU. Who was the highest author who knew about this? We need to know the answer to this."

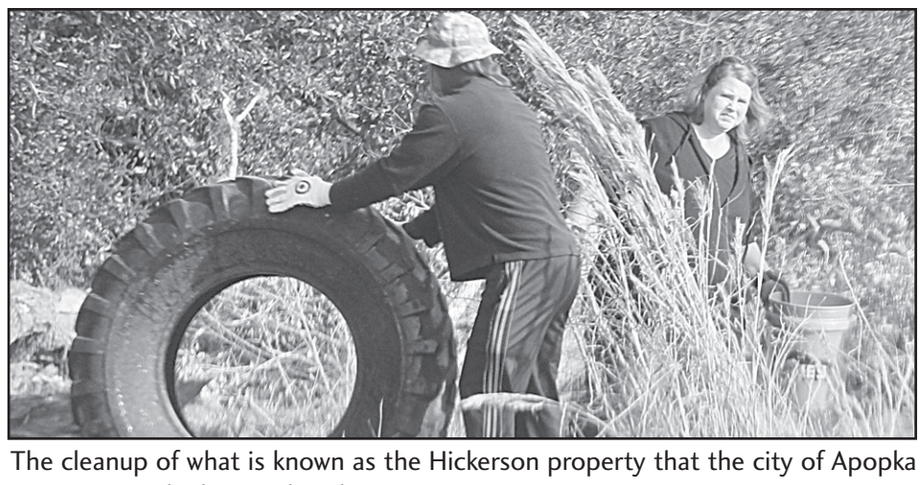
City looking to legislature for $1 million to aid in birding park

By Teresa Sargeant
Apopka Chief Staff



The cleanup of what is known as the Hickerson property that the city of Apopka now owns took place earlier this year.

The city of Apopka is currently seeking $1 million from the state government to finance the new gateway birding park that will serve as an educational facility for conservation activities.

As a joint venture between the city of Apopka and the Orange Audubon Society, the birding park will have amenities including a beehive, bee observatory, and an aviary on the 66-acre Hickerson property, located on the north side of Lust Road and west of Binion Road and State Road 429.

The park will serve as an access to the Lake Apopka Wildlife Drive, a one-way, 11-mile drive that starts at Lust Road and ends on Jones Road in Orange County. St. Johns River Water Management District operates the drive.

"We're looking for a million dollars. Whatever we can get up to that would be great," said Mayor Bryan Nelson in a Monday, October 21, telephone interview. "We're going to redo that building, we're going to put bathrooms in, we're going to put a some beehives in along with an observatory for the bees."

Earlier this year, organizations including the Apopka Rotary Club, Boy Scouts, and the local Libertarian party collaborated to clean up the Hickerson property.

The city already presented its financial request to state representatives. The House and Senate must approve it and afterward, Governor Ron DeSantis must sign it, Nelson said.

The city obtained the Hickerson property through a land swap with St. Johns River Water Management District. In exchange for the tract, St. Johns District got the city's five acres on Binion Road, where a 17,000-square foot district service center will be built that is expected to bring in dozens of new high-paying jobs.

As for whether "gateway birding park" will be the official name, Nelson said that "we haven't determined that yet."

From 2016 to 2018, the Orange Audubon Society played a prominent role in in securing the Hickerson property for the city. However the organization has not been involved with the site planning, said Orange Audubon Society president Deborah Green in a Tuesday, October 22 email.

"We were happy to participate in the cleanup this past spring, but that's all," she said. "While always being willing to partner if things change, Orange Audubon is focusing on supporting the public access to the Lake Apopka North Shore by working directly with the St. Johns River Water Management District."

In 2015, the Apopka City Council approved accepting the Hickerson property donation from St. Johns.

In 2017, the council approved the memorandum of understanding between the city of Apopka and the Orange Audubon Society, sending the document to St. Johns District and requesting the Hickerson property donation.

The memorandum of understanding details the city and the Orange Audubon Society's intent to collaborate on turning the Hickerson property into a birding park.

ages, and the Foliage Sertoma Club joins with the community in seeking a parade of participants for all to enjoy. The inclusion of five marching bands help make it one of the largest parades in the Central Florida area, and position in the parade is determined by the order in which applications are received.

Deadline for submitting entry forms is November 20, or until all 100 positions are filled, whichever comes first. For-profit entries are $75 and non-profit entries are $50. Checks should be made payable to the Foliage Sertoma Club of Apopka. Entry applications are available from the office of Steven R. Deviese, C.P.A., parade chairman.

For an application or additional information, email Apopkacpa@hotmail.com or call 407-886-4331.

Community support is so appreciated

Editor:

I would like to thank, on behalf of the Miss Apopka Scholarship Pageant Committee, The Apopka Chief and The Planter for the outstanding press coverage of the Miss Apopka Competition. The many articles leading up to the event at Apopka High School certainly let our audience know that they were in for a wonderful evening with fabulous candidates and the delightful KidzDance.

Our candidates were greeted upon their arrival at City Hall for interviews with the pictorial of everyone competing. I watched as they tucked their paper away for safekeeping. The color photos of pageant night were wonderful. Our new Miss Apopka, Amanda Kronhaus, will cherish that crown photo for years to come. I know how important the photos are to these young ladies since they have been posted on Facebook time and time again. Treasured memories!

A special thank-you goes out to our community who helped support the sponsorship for this educational scholarship program. It would not have been possible without your commitment to crown our new city representative. Amanda is excited and ready to make appearances for Apopka. If you would like to have her to attend an event, please contact Rosali Morris at rosiecolors@embarqmail.com.

From behind the scenes, I would like to thank all the Apopka restaurants that donated food that kept our young ladies and police officers very happy. We felt very safe with the men-in-blue escorts! Also to the backstage staff I would like to express a tremendous thank-you for helping our candidates. One commented that it was as if six moms were helping us. No better compliment. Somehow, the producers always make the show seem effortless yet amazing.

Apopka High School was absolutely wonderful helping in all aspects of our event. I would be remiss if I didn't mention that everyone on the Miss Apopka Committee is a fabulous volunteer that loves our great city.

Thank you again to both papers for showcasing so beautifully the Miss Apopka Scholarship Competition. Local coverage this incredible just does not happen anywhere else but Apopka! You are very much appreciated by all of us.

Corbeil: Imagination is the beginning

U.S. Senator Joseph Biden (D-Del.) – "At a minimum, there seems to be serious … serious … serious breaches of security."

U.S. Senator Patrick Leahy (D.Vt.) – "Absolutely ridiculous for any White House to go get this many files."

Washington Post columnist David Broder – "Just firing a few guys won't solve the problem."

ABC's Cokie Roberts with bitter rancor – "'Yet' is the operative word here. They haven't used the files yet.'"

Officials and critics on both sides of the political spectrum have difficulty understanding why the Clinton gang would involve themselves in a Filegate, especially after the toll taken by Whitewatergate.

Combining Channelgate and Filegate together as one story, however, gives an answer in the seemingly unanswerable question of "Why?"

Woodward tries to soften the impact by recording that Hillary was only imagining a conversation with these dead people.

Unfortunately, all evil as well as all good begins in the imagination.

This is where character comes in.

"Casting down imaginations and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;" II Corinthians 10:5.
