

Security: Out-of-state pension can make a difference in SS amount

ployment are reduced. The GPO reduction to your survivor benefit is severe – a reduction by 2/3rds of the amount of your Ohio state pension, which can – and often does – completely eliminate any SS survivor benefit you might otherwise be entitled to.

For clarity, the monthly SS payment your husband was receiving at his death stops automatically. At that point, your eligibility for additional SS benefits from your husband was assessed and, because of the GPO, Social Security offset your potential survivor benefit from your husband by 2/3rds of your Ohio state pension, which apparently eliminated your survivor benefit. As unfair as this may seem to you, note that the same thing happens to any surviving spouse who also has their own earned SS retirement benefit – their personal SS retirement benefit offsets their SS survivor benefit, so a spouse with a regular SS retirement benefit higher than their deceased spouse's benefit gets no surviving spouse benefit.

FYI, the State of Ohio has an obligation to make clear that by not paying into Social Security your future SS spousal/survivor benefits are affected. Without knowing how that was presented to you during your OH state employment, here's a quote from Ohio's Public Employee Retirement System (OPERS) website: "If you are eligible for Social Security benefits and are receiving a retirement benefit from OPERS, your Social Security benefits may be affected by the Government Pension Offset or the Windfall Elimination Provision. The Government Pension Offset may also affect you if you are eligible for Social Security benefits through your spouse. The Windfall Elimination Provision may affect you if you qualify for Social Security benefits due to your own work history." In any case, you are certainly not alone in your feelings about how your Social Security benefits have been affected by the GPO. This provision was enacted in 1983 and has been challenged in just about every Congressional session since that time, without success.

In fact, there is a legislative bill active in the current Congress – H.R. 82 – The Social Security Fairness Act – which was introduced on the House floor in January and "referred to committee" for consideration.

Like all preceding WEP/GPO reform bills, this one sits idle in Committee.

If you wish to add your voice to those who oppose the GPO, you should contact your Congressional Representative to solicit action on H.R. 82.

Moore: Gail Piazza is great example

discussion on social media and not enough action to make things better. Gail Piazza is a great example of how to make something a success. She stuck with advocating for the horse ring for over twenty years. Congratulations, Gail.

I would also like to provide a bit more information on the Clarcona Horseman's Park. The facility boasts an equestrian path which connects the rings with the 22-mile West Orange Trail. Also, as the Coast-to-Coast Trail is completed, trails are accessible in connecting the Clarcona Horseman's Park with Winter Garden and the Seminole Trail. Additionally, the McCormick Road Trail will connect the West Orange Trail and the Clarcona Horseman's Park to Magnolia Park. This then allows pedestrians, cyclists, and horse and riders to access the Lake Apopka Loop Trail.

Finally, the Horseman's Park is located in the Clarcona Rural Settlement. It has been a challenge protecting this few-and-far-between remaining rural area which is sandwiched between the burgeoning cities of Apopka and Ocoee. It is vital to protect rural and suburban areas while Orange County is increasingly urbanizing. The county is in the process of updating its comprehensive plan, which is called Vision 2050. The Clarcona Rural Settlement is protected in the Vision 2050 Comprehensive Plan from excessive, new development.

Lastly, the budget for the covered arena design and construction is approximately $2.03 million dollars. It was paid from Orange County general revenue and park impact fees. I look forward to attending a show under this beautiful, covered ring. I hope you take advantage of this new amenity in District 2 as well.

Hayden: Respond to opportunity passed the whole church, and we were singing the song of joy and happiness that comes from serving others.

One more example: the church I attend now was pastored by a younger man and he mentioned that, instead of celebrating Thanksgiving at home, we ought to serve others for Thanksgiving. We had most of the church agree that is what the church should do, so he and his wife went shopping and presented a menu for the Anthony House in Zellwood. Many were shocked to find out shoes had been put on the list of ideas of serving others for Thanksgiving, but not at home.

Alas, the Pastor had corralled us, branded us, and we had no way out. Thanksgiving came, and after the Pastor's pep talk, we took our places at the jobs we had surrendered to for the Anthony House Thanksgiving. My job was washing the pots and pans as they finished using them, and I hated doing dishes! There were children, babies, mommies, daddies, and older people that were being assisted by the organization that ran the Anthony House and all of them were hungry! We were amazed at the thankfulness we experienced from those we served. We laughed, talked, and just enjoyed Thanksgiving like never before.

Our church had been close, and we took every opportunity to serve each other, but this Thanksgiving magnified our joy and our togetherness because we had allowed our Lord to use us for someone else's joy. He showed His pleasure by drawing us to Himself, and in so doing, we drew closer together, and more in love.

Oh, I never realized the joy of doing dishes so much before. I challenge you to try this.

Do not advertise, but do something for someone else when you see a need. Just do it. Do not think about it or you will talk yourself out of it. I do not have to tell you of something to do.

You see opportunities every day, and you may have taken it once or twice, but today do it as a "paying it forward" kind of thing, and do it for them – not for your ability to feel good, but for them.

Our nation needs a healing touch, and it starts with you and me being the kind of people that sing to each other when we arise to go into our daily routine. There are those out there that only you can reach. They are waiting!

Everybody has an opinion. Why not share yours?
