

Report indicates that Florida's growing population needs more physicians

By: Andrew Powell
(The Center Square) —

A new report says many people in Florida don't receive needed health care because they lack easy access to adequate services.

Florida TaxWatch recently released its report, Social Determinants of Health: Health Care Access and Quality. According to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, social determinants of health are environmental factors that can impact individuals' health outcomes.

These include health care access and quality; education access and quality; social and community context; neighborhood and built environment; and economic stability.

According to the report, these factors can majorly impact a person's health, well-being and quality of life. The report notes that 80 percent of a person's health is determined by social factors, while the remaining 20 percent results from receiving medical care.

In Florida, many people lack access to health care services, with the biggest barrier being the cost. In a 2019 survey of 1,200 Floridians, 55 percent had experienced health care cost burdens, while 78 percent worried they would not be able to afford health care in the future.

The report states Florida ranked 41st in 2021 for overall health care and access, which was attributed to the growing number of uninsured adults, rising insurance costs and policies that make health care less accessible.

The report further notes that Florida has consistently ranked in the bottom 10 states for uninsured citizens.

Florida currently has a physician shortage and the report notes this plays a role in access to quality health care.

With Florida's population growing, especially in rural areas, the number of physicians in the Sunshine State is insufficient. By 2030, an additional 22,000 physicians are needed to bridge the gap.

The report notes that as of 2023, only 40 percent of Florida's population has employer-sponsored health insurance, while the rate of uninsured Floridians was 11.2 percent in 2022 — higher than the national average of 8 percent. Also, in 2022, Florida ranked 46th in the nation for the uninsured population.

Compounding this are the 979,000 people who have been disenrolled from Medicaid, 460,000 of whom are children.

Furthermore, access depends on where the person lives. In rural areas, there are roughly 1.3 physicians for every 1,000 people available in the U.S., while urban areas have around 3.1 physicians for every 1,000 people.

Byrd: School grades have improved

Zellwood Elementary School on achieving an "A" grade this year. Both schools worked incredibly hard to bring their grades up to this level. This is the first time Wolf Lake Middle School has been an "A" school since 2010.

For Zellwood Elementary, this grade has not been achieved since 2004! More impressive is their rise from a "D" grade in 2016, consistently improving since that grade all the way to the top with an "A" this year.

Of course, these are not our only "A" schools in Apopka. Wolf Lake Elementary kept up its consistent "A" rating again this year and our newest school Kelly Park School received its second "A" grade since opening two years ago.

But "A" grades are not the only thing to celebrate. Lakeville Elementary went up from a "C" grade to a "B" grade this year. This is the first time Lakeville has been a "B" since 2015. I'm so proud of their hard work and dedication to improvement.

Another school worth mentioning is Apopka High School, which continues to improve. The school came in with a "B" again, continuing to improve since dropping to a "C" in 2022. In fact, they were only 5 percentage points away from an "A".

Other close calls were Piedmont Lakes Middle School and Apopka Middle School. Both schools remained a "C", yet made significant gains and are very close to achieving their "B" grades. Piedmont Lakes was 4 percentage points away and Apopka Middle was only 1 percentage point away. I'm incredibly proud of the hard work by both these schools.

While I always love celebrating these results, I will always continue to profess that a single letter grade does not tell the whole story. Every single day in every one of our schools, there are amazing things happening.

Our schools help children make connections and learn despite the challenges many of our students come to school with each day. Each time I visit one of our local schools I am amazed at what I see. The creativity and passion of our educators and staff is truly miraculous.

As a school board member and a mom who has raised two children through our public schools, I am grateful. Grateful for those that go to work each day to educate our next generation so well.

Congratulations to all our schools on another year of hard work.

who have an ideology that does away with police presence. Our policemen and all first responders need to know we support them, and we do not want to live in a community without them. I was pleasantly surprised to see an individual jump in to help protect an Officer of the Law when she was being over-powered by a criminal.

Where are the men that used to be the protectors of justice? Have we given up the privilege of being the daddy (a little girl's first love, and a boy's first hero), the provider, the family unit, and the example of leadership for daily living?

It is time to promote the general Welfare by standing up to those who will disparage our police and our first responders and therefore we will insure domestic tranquility. Let all of us be lovers of the "Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our posterity." Love is not the tingling that comes from an emotional encounter, but a solid, unconditional commitment that is a choice we make. Once made, that commitment may waiver, but never fails.

Are our emotions involved with our commitment? Ask me when I see "Old Glory" being raised to the "Star Spangled Banner" and the tears start when I think of the men and women who have sacrificed their lives in defense of what that banner stands for. Is our love of nation being tried? You bet it is!

Look at today's headlines and listen to the news-casts that promote progressive ideals and wok attitudes to bring our nation to its knees. We must be ready to stand in the gap and not back down when we are faced with the forces of the left.

The Marine motto, "Semper Fidelis" (Always Faithful), should be the beat of our hearts. Our national motto, "In GOD we trust" should sustain us when we feel we cannot do this by ourselves. As I said in the beginning, it is not the "flash in the pan" that makes a difference, but the one who, when being tested, holds his or her head up and stands solid in the freedoms given to us by our Creator.

Keep on keepin' on. Start with your neighbors. Let them know you are concerned for them and you are willing to defend them and your neighborhood because we are all in this boat together. Race has nothing to do with it if we stand together as Americans, blessed to be together in the greatest nation the world has ever experienced, the United States of America.

23.82 pounds wins X-treme Bass Series Tournament on Harris chain

Hello Folks,

I hope you are havin' a great week, and you are lookin' forward to goin' fishin' this weekend. We might have a little interruption due to the storm, but hopefully, we will just get some rain out of the system. It's been kinda hot and it looks like we are goin' to have the hottest month of July on record since they started keepin' records. If you are on the water, make sure you have plenty of water and Gatorade on board so you can stay hydrated.

The panfishin' has slowed way, way down durin' the month of July. It's been so hot folks just ain't fishin' for panfish. Kyle at Bitter's Bait & Tackle reports that they are only sellin' a few cups of red worms each day due to the heat.

They are sellin' a few shiners for bass fishin' early in the mornin' or late in the day. If you can find a shade tree and float a shiner out near the grass or pads, you just might get a Florida Bass to bite. Folks are catchin' a few bass in the Harris Chain. It's been a little slow due to the heat. You will have to be very patient because the bite has been slow. You can try fishin' the fish finders throughout the chain. They help find the pads that provide lots of shade for the bass. You can also try fishin' offshore grass beds in deeper water.

Jim Keck

The X-treme Bass Series held their monthly tournament on the Harris chain last weekend and it took 23.82 pounds to win. The team of Colbie Cagle and Braden Robinson took home their 2nd win of the season. Congrats guys on a job well done, especially in this hot weather. The team of Mathew Elixson and Hunter Pruitt came in 2nd place, and they also had the big bass of the tournament which weighed in at 8.27 pounds.

The bass fishin' on the Butler Chain is a little slow, but is still fishin' better than most lakes in our area. You will do best by gettin' on the water early and takin' advantage of the early mornin' bite. Also keep an eye out for schoolers comin' up and feedin' on bait-fish. Always have a rod with a lipless crank-bait tied on, so you will be ready for some great fun catchin' those schoolers. You should be able to catch plenty of keeper-size bass especially if you have a little breeze blowin' durin' the day.

The Wednesday night Shootout held on John's Lake was a little slow as well. If you fish their tournament, you are allowed to weigh in 3 bass. They hold their tournament from 5:15-9 p.m. The team of Leandro Saratt and Erico School won the 11-boat event with 3 bass that hit the scales at 8.30 pounds. Big bass was caught by the team of Chad Hayes and Ronnie Durden which weighed in at 5.90 pounds.

Well, that's it for this week. I wish I had better news to report, but it's that time of the year when it's the dog days of summer. The dog days of summer start on July 3rd and run through August 11th. These 40 days are usually the hottest 40 days of the year. In Florida, those days may go into September as well.

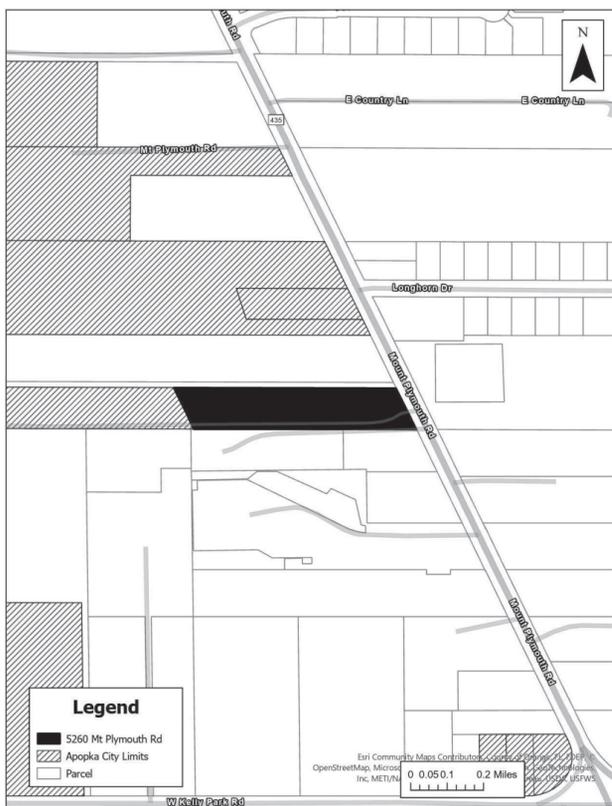

I hope you have a great week, and I'll see ya next week.

Tip of the week: Dog Days.

Save a few and good luck!

football and his academics has always been easy because of the work ethic instilled in him by his parents from a very young age. Davison says that because he started taking academics so seriously at such a young age and has always been balancing his athletic and academic lives that now it's just second nature.

"Oh, I feel like that's been the easy thing for me. My parents have instilled the importance of an academic mindset in me from when I was a baby. So, I just grew up knowing how to do it. Like, I don't play video games during the week. I make sure that I'm zoned in from when I get home to when it's time to go to sleep. I make sure I get all my work done. And it's really just me wanting to reach that highest level, to reach my ceiling, as quickly as I can. Since I was so young, it wasn't really anything for me, and now I'm able to keep it up. I'm seeing the benefits from it. I'm reaping the benefits of all that work

Leadership and chemistry go hand in hand a lot of the time. Without a good leader, there will be no chemistry in a team. So, leadership got us talking about chemistry and how the Blue Darters and Davison himself grow and foster that brotherhood that's needed in a winning program.

Davison told me that chemistry on the field starts off the field. He said that he helps some of his teammates with homework, they play games together in their free time, and on the field at practice is where a lot of joking around and friendships start. Davison also said he's always checking in with his guys whether at school, practice, or in free time just to make sure they are ok, and that everything is going well.

"Right now, we've been focusing big on brotherhood. So, we as a team feel like as long as you can fight for your brother, you can do anything. And so that man next to you means the world to us, and we're going to keep it like that for a while.

I asked Davison what strategies or methods he uses to keep his morale high after a tough play or big hit during a game.

"You know, you can't really live in the play or in the past too much as a quarterback. It's all about keeping your composure and looking into the future. But sometimes, I'll ask when we get into the sideline to see the play I messed up on, and then communicate to all the coaches so I can figure out what I can do to make that play better and the rest of the game better for us as a team."

When we talked about preparations during the off-season Davison talked about the importance of rest. He said the boys and himself have been focused on relaxing and alone time to figure out what would work best for everybody for the upcoming season. He talked about the obvious physical work that they have focused on this off-season with condition-

Speed: May wants his red hat

The car pictured is May's grandfather's Datsun 240Z that set the land speed record in October of 2021. This is the car May will attempt to set his record in.

true story about Burt Munro building a motorcycle to beat the land speed record at Bonneville.

May's grandfather Red will be attempting to break a speed record that he put in place just three years ago. In October of 2021, May's grandfather put down a record-breaking land speed of 244 miles per hour beating the previous record of 220 that stood untouched since 1988. May will be joining him the first week of August as his grandfather tries to beat the record he set in 2021 while May will try to set his own record.

May's dream is to be the youngest person ever to receive a red hat. To get a red hat, you must set a land speed record over 200 miles per hour. Right now, the youngest person to break a land speed record over 200 miles per hour is a 17-year-old, so May will be the youngest by a good margin if he can pull it off. I will say this... I'm not the biggest car guy, but I know a little bit and this car that May will be driving is no joke.

The car is a 1972 Datsun 240Z that has been fitted with a Toyota 2JZ-GTE inline-six- and a 72-millimeter turbo. Now to some that may sound like gibberish but in layman's terms this car is probably faster than any car you've ever seen. The car pushes out a peak of 859 horsepower.

May's grandfather will be trying to break the record on Saturday, August 3, and will try again the following Sunday. Depending on if May's grandfather breaks the record, May will try to create his own record the following Monday.

I hope May can make his dream come true, and stay tuned next week for updates and an interview with May to tell all about his trip and what his next dream will look like.
