

Orange County Library System Turns 100

On November 8, Orange County Library System celebrates its 100th birthday with a system-wide party at all branch locations.

Customers of all ages are invited to stop by during the library's open hours, fill out a birthday card and share a special library memory. Customers who visit that day will receive a free 100 Year Celebration logo cookie, while supplies last.

The Albertson Public Library first opened its doors on November 8, 1923. That library was made possible thanks to a massive book donation from retired New York City police inspector Captain Charles Albertson, who agreed to give his collection of books to the city of Orlando if it built a public library to house them. Ever since then, Orange County Library System has been dedicated to meeting the needs of the community.

From the earliest introduction of mobile services like bookmobiles and home delivery, to the establishment of OCLS's current 15 locations (and counting), the work done over the past century has established Orange County Library System as a pillar of the community. Last year, over 3.3 million items were circulated and 2.6 million digital items were downloaded by library cardholders.

In 2023, the library held a reading challenge during the annual Summer at Your Library program, during which 3,496 participants logged a total of more than 2.1 million minutes read during the summer. Local Wanderer, OCLS's culture pass program, provided more than 5,000 customers free access to local arts and cultural attractions, including the Central Florida Zoo and Botanical Gardens, the Mennello Museum of American Art, and the Dr. Phillips Center for the Performing Arts.

The library has also made strides toward eliminating barriers to service – for example, fines for overdue materials were eliminated and a special library card for kids living in group homes was created.

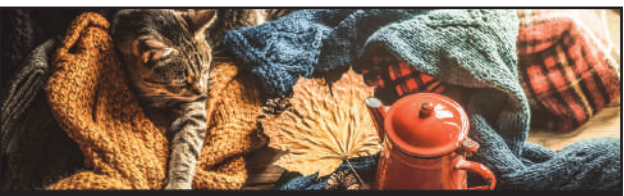

Orange County Library System looks forward to a bright future. Two new branches are planned – one in Horizon West and one in Lake Nona – and the library's new Community Engagement Department is implementing programs and initiatives designed to take place where library customers need them, such as senior centers, hospitals and Head Starts.

Thanks to a generous $100,000 donation from Sorosis of Orlando Woman's Club, the library plans to bring mobile services back to the community. So far, the funding has enabled the library to purchase its first book bike, capable of visiting community events like pop-up markets and festivals to check out books and promote library services and card signups.

Looking ahead, the library hopes to use the funds to re-introduce a bookmobile to Orange County and ensure that everybody has access to the resources, materials and experiences they need to enrich their lives.

For more information about Orange County Library System, or to sign up for a card, visit ocls.info or call 407-835-7323.

Thinking of God as a Friend

Many of us were raised with the idea of God as a stern authority figure, the gray-haired old man who gave us the ten commandments and all of the other rules of the Old Testament. But that is only one side of God's nature, although admittedly an important part of God's nature for a time in human history (and in our own personal development) when we needed explicit instruction on how to behave. But there are many sides to God's nature, and the one which many of us need to be more aware of is the aspect of God that is like a supportive and loyal friend.

One of the benefits of constant prayer or communion with God is that it keeps us constantly in the presence of a God who is always there to help. Besides keeping in constant touch with God through prayer, it can help to think of God as a person, and this is why having a relationship with Jesus, who we can easily think of in human and personal terms, is so helpful to many people.

Doing things with God that you would do with a friend can also help, even if at first it might seem a bit "hokey." Consider having a cup of coffee with God, or taking a walk with Him. Pray to Him the way you would talk to a trusted friend. Doing these things will make His presence more real and you will probably find yourself having more of a warm and personal relationship with God than the cold and abstract relationship that many of us grew up with.

ON THE GO

Federalist papers first appeared in New York City newspaper in 1787

October 21

1805 - The Battle of Trafalgar took place between the British Royal Navy and the combined French and Spanish fleets. The victorious British ended the threat of Napoleon’s invasion of England. British naval hero Admiral Horatio Nelson was mortally wounded aboard his ship Victory.

1879 - Thomas Edison successfully tested an electric incandescent lamp with a carbonized filament at his laboratory in Menlo Park, New Jersey, keeping it lit for over 13 hours.

1915 - The first transatlantic radio voice message was made by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company from Virginia to Paris.

1944 - During World War II in Europe, American troops captured Aachen in western Germany after a week of hard fighting. It was the first large German city taken by the Allies.

1967 - Thousands of anti-war protesters stormed the Pentagon during a rally against the Vietnam War in Washington, D.C. About 250 were arrested. No shots were fired, but demonstrators were struck with nightsticks and rifle butts.

Birthday - Jazz great Dizzy Gillespie (1917-1993) was born in Cheraw, South Carolina (as John Birks Gillespie). He was a trumpet player, composer, band leader and one of the founding fathers of modern jazz, known for his trademark puffed cheeks and bent trumpet.

October 22

1962 - President John F.

Kennedy appeared on television to inform Americans of the existence of Russian missiles in Cuba. The President demanded their removal and announced a naval “quarantine” of Cuba. Six days later, the Russians announced they would remove the weapons. In return, the U.S. later removed missiles from Turkey.

1979 - The exiled Shah of Iran arrived in the United States for medical treatment. A few weeks later, Iranian militants seized the U.S. Embassy in Tehran and took 66 Americans hostage. They demanded the return of the Shah for trial. The U.S. refused. The Shah died of cancer in July of 1980. The hostages were freed in January of 1981.

Birthday - Hungarian composer Franz Liszt (1811-1886) was born in Raiding, Hungary. He was a brilliant pianist best known for Hungarian Rhapsody No. 2, Liebestraum No. 3, and his Faust and Dante symphonies.

October 23

1983 - Terrorists drove a truck loaded with TNT into the U.S. and French headquarters in Beirut, Lebanon, exploding it and killing 241 U.S. Marines and 58 French paratroopers.

1989 - Hungary declared itself a republic 33 years after Soviet Russian troops crushed a popular revolt against Communist rule.

1990 - Ukrainian Prime Minister Vitaly Masol resigned after mass protests by students, becoming the first Soviet official of that rank to quit under public pressure.

Mike Johnson is next nominee for speaker of the House

By: Casey Harper
(The Center Square)

U.S. House Republicans chose Rep. Mike Johnson, R-La., to be the new nominee for speaker of the House, October 24) the latest in a series of Republican lawmakers facing the daunting task of cobbling together the needed 217 votes for the speakership.

Nine House Republicans were announced Sunday as throwing their hat in the ring to be speaker, but that number has slowly been whittled down as lawmakers dropped out.
Now, Johnson, a conservative Republican with significant support in the party, will have his chance.
“We must govern well and expand our majority next year,” Johnson said in a letter to his fellow Republicans earlier over the weekend asking for support in the speaker’s race.
It remains unclear if Johnson will have a vote on the House floor. The House has gone without a speaker for more than three weeks.

Notably, Rep. Kevin Hern, chairman of the Republican Study Committee, was previously running for speaker but dropped out, telling reporters he was throwing his support behind Johnson.
Rep. Matt Gaetz, R-Fla., kicked off the speakership battle by filing a motion to vacate former House Speaker Kevin McCarthy, R-Calif. From there, Majority Leader Steve Scal-ise won the nomination but quickly backed out after failing to get the needed support. House Judiciary Chair Rep. Jim Jordan, R-Ohio, was next in line but lost the nomination after three failed votes on the House floor with 25 Republicans ultimately voting against him.

Jordan took fire in particular for questioning the results of the 2020 election, which has become a key issue in this speakership battle.
Majority Whip Tom Emmer, R-Minn., was next to secure the nomination but quickly withdrew after failing to gain support.
Notably, former President Donald Trump aggressively spoke out against Emmer, likely hurting his chances.
However, Trump’s endorsement of Jordan was not enough to secure the speakership.
Now, the House remains stalled and unable to pass any legislation until resolving the lack of a speaker. The federal government is set to partially shut down in the middle of November if another spending package is not passed, and lawmakers face growing calls to send funds overseas to help Ukraine and Israel with their respective wars.

“Mike Johnson is a man of integrity and a prin-cipated conservative,” Rep.
Jim Banks, R-Ind., wrote on X, formerly known as Twitter. “I will be proud to cast my vote on behalf of northeast Indiana for him on the floor tomorrow to make him the next Speaker of the House!”
