WHS player finalist for Central Florida girls basketball player of the week

By Marshall Tempest
Apopka Chief Staff

Wekiva High School's very own Senaia Asanya was selected by SBLive Florida as one of the nine candidates who will be rewarded with their Central Florida Girls Basketball player of the week on Monday, January 1.

Asanya is just a sophomore but is over six feet tall and incredibly gifted. She is currently leading the Mustangs in a lot of their stat columns. Asanya leads the team in blocks, rebounds, assists, and free throws per game and has 122 points so far this season averaging 8.14 points a game. In early December of last year, the Mustangs and the Blue Darters met in a contest that went in the Mustangs' favor. Wekiva won the game 47-25 and Asanya was a huge part of the victory leading the Mustangs with 14 points.

The Mustangs are currently 11-6 and sit at the top of the 6A District 6 standings 1-0 in district play. Wekiva had their first game of 2024 on Friday, January 5, against Marietta Highschool from Marietta Georgia, in a non-conference game at the Lakepoint She Got Game Classic.

AHS winter athletics start back up, soccer regular season ending

By Marshall Tempest

Apopka Blue Darters winter sports get right back into action this upcoming week. With all sports coming back full-time after the break there'll be a slew of games happening all next week. Right now, the Blue Darters are all in similar spots across all the winter sports.

In boys' basketball, the varsity team was 6-6 before press time and sat third in the 7A District 3 standings under Evans (10-4) then Lake Brantley (7-5), but had an away game against Davenport Highschool on Thursday, January 4, at 7:30 p.m. They have another game this Saturday, January 6, slated for an 8 p.m. tipoff against Mount Dora Christian Academy at the Nathan Hayes Shoot-out. The boys' next games are an away matchup with Olympia on Saturday, January 17, slated for a 7:30 p.m. tipoff, an away matchup with Ocoee on Friday, January 19, slated for a 7 p.m. tipoff, and another away game against Eustis on Monday, January 22, slated for a 7 p.m. tipoff.

In girls' basketball, the varsity team is 6-9 and sits second in the 7A District 3 standings under Ocoee (11-3). The girls' next games are an away game against Osceola on Wednesday, January 10, set for a 6 p.m. tipoff, and a home game matchup with Horizon on Thursday, January 11, slated for a 7:30 p.m. tipoff.

In boys' soccer the varsity team is 5-6-1 and sits fifth in the 7A District 3 standings under West Orange (7-2-1), then Ocoee (10-3-2), then West Port (8-2), and finally East Ridge (7-3-1). The boys' next games are an away matchup with Lake Minneola on Tuesday, January 9, slated for a 7 p.m. start, another away game against Evans on Wednesday, January 10, slated for a 6 p.m. start, and a district matchup with East Ridge on Friday, January 12, slated for a 7:30 p.m. start.

In girls' soccer, the varsity team is 4-5-2 and sits most likely fifth in the 7A District 3 standings as the current standings haven't been updated. The girls' next games are an away game against Windermere on Tuesday, January 9, slated for a 7:30 p.m. start, a home matchup against Dr. Phillips on Wednesday, January 10, slated for a 6 p.m. start, and an away matchup against Oviedo on Thursday, January 11, slated for a 7:30 p.m. start.

Both the girls' and boys' soccer teams' regular season ends the week of January 19. The girls' last game is a home game against East Ridge on Thursday, January 18, slated for a 6 p.m. start, and the boys last game is a home game against West Port on Friday, January 19, slated for a 7:30 p.m. start.

Michigan vs. Washington in College Football Championship

By Marshall Tempest
Apopka Chief Staff

Well, I think it's safe to say I didn't see this coming; I don't think many people saw this coming. I saw Texas and Alabama in the College Football Championship like I said last week. If anything, I thought maybe Michigan would pull off the victory, or maybe Washington would pull it off by beating Texas. But the last thing I saw coming was Washington vs. Michigan. Now the Wolverines and the Huskies are set to face off for all of the glory of the college football season on Monday, January 8, at NRG Stadium in Houston with kickoff slated for 7:30 p.m.

Whatever did or didn't happen, or whoever did or didn't win, these two games were some of the most exciting games

TEMPEST'S TIMEOUT

Marshall Tempest

I watched all year. I don't know if I can say this for sure, but I think this Michigan vs. Washington game just might even be more exciting.

Michigan beats Alabama in overtime (27-20)

All season long for the Wolverines all over the nation it was "Michigan vs. Everybody." Last week I was a part of the "everybody," and boy, was I wrong! I thought that, once again, the Wolverines would go into a bowl game and underperform and that the SEC would prove superior. But the SEC reign of superiority may be over as this year marks the first College Football National Championship game that does not include an SEC team since the 2014 season, which was the beginning of the College Football Playoff era.

Now, after losing in the semifinals during each of its previous two seasons the Wolverines have earned their first College Football Playoff win as they head to the championship game.

Talking about the game now, Michigan's pass rush looked unbelievable. Michigan recorded five sacks on Alabama's Jalen Milroe in the first half. There was always pressure, and Milroe was able to turn a few of those collapsed pockets into first-down scramble gains. More often than not, they resulted in an incomple-tion or a loss of yards. The Wolverines collected 10 tackles for loss against Alabama and 68 total tackles compared to the Tide's one tackle for loss and 47 total tackles.

The D-line also helped shut down Alabama's run game in the first half, only allowing the Tide to collect 43 yards on the ground in the first half. Alabama did make some good adjustments though, as by the end of the game, they left with 172 rushing yards and two rushing touchdowns.

The second half was where the game began to change though as Alabama went into the locker room down 13-10. Neither team would go to score in the third quarter as they couldn't complete their long drives. Alabama fumbled twice on what was their most promising drive of the third quarter, and Michigan couldn't even get off their side of the field.

At the top of the fourth quarter, Alabama found their posturing score putting them up 17-13 on a rushing touchdown. This is when the Wolverines and the Tide began to play a game of tug of war with the line of scrimmage.

Now with possession and the entirety of the fourth quarter on their side Alabama had a chance to control the rest of the game. But mistakes in the Alabama pocket would lead to Michigan's opportunity to bring the momentum back on their side. Milroe started the drive well completing a 13-yard pass for a first down. But on the next play, Milroe scrambled from the pocket without switching the ball to the hand opposition of incoming Wolverines and fumbled as he was tackled giving Michigan the ball in great field position at their 49-yard line.

Michigan would go on to waste a great drive getting to the Bama 31-yard line and having to go with a field goal. The 49-yard attempt missed wide left, and it was once again the Tide's ball.

Alabama also couldn't make the most out of their drive but stuck mostly to the ground trying to grind out the clock and get into field goal range like Michigan. The Tide were stopped at Michigan's 34 and were left with a field goal attempt as their only viable option. The 52-yard attempt was good, and Alabama put themselves ahead 20-13 creating a touch-down-or-bust mission for the Wolverines on their

TTO: Tide's final play not enough

Luckily, they were able to complete that mission. In eight plays and 75 yards later after bouncing from the run to the pass and keeping the Tide on their heels Michigan scored a 4-yard passing touchdown and sailed in the extra point to tie the game 20-20 with 1:34 to go.

Alabama got the ball back, but their two-minute drill did not go as planned as they were forced to punt after five plays and 18 yards.

The punt was sent to the Michigan six-yard line, but the Wolverines muffed the punt losing five and a half yards and recovering it placing them on the 1/2-yard line in a very bad position with just 44 seconds left in the game.

Alabama attempted to try to force a safety, but the Michigan O-line and run game proved too strong even with their back against the wall. Regulation ended and so began overtime.

Blake Corum once again was the hero for the Wolverines with a touchdown in just two plays and breaking every tackle attempted on him on his way into the endzone. The Wolverines were up 27-20 and Alabama had one drive and 25 yards to come away with a score or a plane ticket home.

Alabama stuck to the ground in overtime just like Michigan. On third and goal Milroe completed an 11-yard pass for a first down that put them on the Michigan three-yard line. Now with one play and a spot in the National Championship on the line, both teams readied for the final play.

Milroe gets the ball and rushes straight forward on what seemed like a quarterback draw, but was met immediately by the Michigan defense and stopped at the line killing the SEC's run in the play-offs and securing Michigan's spot in the National Championship.

I've seen a lot of people talk about this play call with Milroe on fourth and goal, but if you go back and watch the snap, it was down to his feet which had been a problem all game. I don't know the play call. I don't know if it was a designed quarterback run. But if it was, Milroe had been creating first downs and great gains on his feet throughout the second half, so I can understand the play call. To those saying they should've thrown the ball the Tide hadn't done well throwing all night when the field got short, so I don't know if that was the right play either. But if anyone knows the right play to win a college football game, especially in the postseason, it's probably Nick Saban, so I'll take his play call as the right one.

Washington beats Texas (37-31)

Michael Penix Jr. That's it. That should be the synopsis of this game. This guy is the epitome of a great quarterback, and I'll be honest when I say I was unfamiliar with his game.

The level of accuracy in some of those throws was unbelievable. Half of his huge plays are passes to a manned-up defender, and somehow still getting it right in the breadbasket of their hands. Obviously, all the praise to his receivers Rome Odunze and Ja'Lynn Polk, as well, who had a combined 247 yards and a touchdown on just 11 receptions.

Penix went 29-for-38 with 430 passing yards and two passing touchdowns. Those are crazy numbers against a Texas defense that led the Big 12 defensively in yards a game allowed at 321.7.

Now, Quinn Ewers played a great game too going 24-for-43 and bringing in 318 yards and one passing touchdown. Ewers even had 54 yards on the ground, scrambling out of the pocket to grab first downs on multiple occa-

Five bass weighed in at 30.87 pounds at New Year's Day tournament

Hello Folks,

Happy New Year, I hope your new year has started off with a bang. I know there were lots of fireworks goin' off around my house.

If you got some time off, I hope you got a chance to do some fishin'. Kyle at Bitter's Bait and Tackle reports that the specks are bitin' in

Jim Keck
 Goin' Fishin'

Lake Monroe and Lake Jesup. The store ran out of minners 3 times due to folks gettin' on the water and catchin' some specks. So, if you are wantin' to catch some specks, now is a good time to go.

Folks are catchin' some specks in the St. John's River, as well. I'm sure with the new moon comin' up next week on the 11th, the specks should still be bitin' real good.

The bass fishin' has been good, just ask Bobby Bakewell. Bobby and his fishin' buddy fished the New Year's Day tournament on the Harris Chain. They weighed in 5 bass that hit the scales at 30.87 pounds. They also had big bass for the tournament that weighed 7.79 pounds. That's good news for the college anglers that are fishin' Friday, January 5th. Major League Fishing (MLF) is holdin' a one-day tournament on that day and then next week, the MLF college anglers will be fishin' the championship on the Kissimmee Chain. The tournament will be held out of Big Toho Marina on West Lake. The tournament days are January 9th through January 11th. If you want to see or meet some of the up-and-comin' college anglers, get out to the weigh-ins and support these guys.

I forgot to let y'all that on Saturday, January 6th, there will be an MLF High School tournament on the Harris Chain. All of the MLF tournaments will be held out of Venetian Gardens boat ramp at "Ski Beach" in Leesburg.

The Xtreme Bass Series will be holdin' a tournament on the Harris Chain on January 6th to be held out of Buzard Beach ramp. So, there will be a lot of boat traffic on the chain, so be very careful if you plan on fishin' the Harris Chain this weekend. The bass fishin' on the Butler Chain has been good for small-to-keeper-size bass. You can still catch 20 to 30 bass per trip while fishin' the chain. You can catch 'em on a variety of baits like swim-jigs, chatter-baits and plastic worms.

Kyle also reports that the bass fishin' on the Kissimmee Chain has been good at times. It's still fishin' good, but you will have to cover a lot of water to find 'em. Most of the bass are bein' caught off-shore, and by flippin' the hydrilla. West Lake is really covered in hydrilla, so be careful as you navigate the lake if you plan on fishin' the chain.

Well, that's it for this week. Put on your calendars that the Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission (FWC) meetin' is bein' held on January 24 from 3 'til 8 p.m. The meetin' will be held at the Venetian Center located at 1 Dozier Circle, Leesburg. You will have the opportunity to learn about fish, wildlife and habitat on the chain. You will be able to talk to biologists involved with the Harris Chain management.

I hope you have a great week.

Tip of the week: Specks are bitin'.

Save a few and good luck.
